

Dog Training

Tips and tricks for walking a well-behaved dog after adoption from the Humane Society of the Black Hills

Is your dog walking you? Do you wish your puppy would walk nicely on the leash?
Is your rambunctious bundle of joy pulling you off your feet?

The Humane Society of the Black Hills offers a free, one-hour class most Saturdays at 10 a.m. to address dog walking issues and learn good puppy walking manners.

What You Can Expect:

- Tips on how to train your dog to walk nicely
- Help finding what works with your dog
- Hands-on experience and correction

Getting Started:

- Class size is limited to 8 so reservations are required
- Dogs must be 4 months or older for dog training session
- To register for a training session, contact Esther Ames at est.training01@gmail.com
- Esther will reply with available dates, confirmation, and a list of items to bring on training day.
- Training sessions are held at the Humane Society of the Black Hills, 1820 E. St. Patrick Street, in the outdoor area east of the parking lot.

Meet the Trainer

Esther Ames has been training her own dogs since 1976. While she's not a certified trainer, Ms. Ames has been successfully training German Shepherds, Rottweilers and a variety of large and small breed dogs for more than 40 years.

Over the years her dogs have been recognized in shows and behavior certifications.

Ames has worked with, and learned from several dog trainers over the years and uses those skills and tactics in her training today.

Ames' intention is to make your interactions with your dog as fun and pleasant as possible and help you develop a lifelong bond with your pet.
